CANDY FROM "MORRIS" TAKEN TO THE POLICE AS GIRL FEARED BOMB

Station House Excited To- as It Was Anniversary of Big Riot.

All the detectives, Lieutenants, Captains and Inspectors in Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, Richmond and the Bronx were on edge last night, for Commissioner Woods had sent out special notice that it was the anniversary of the Chicago Anarchists' riot of many years ago and of the attempt to blow up the Bronx County Court House one year ago. And one year ago next Sunday a lighted bomb was placed in the Tombs Court.

Therefore much excitement when Miss Jeanne Gelb, eighteen, of No. 108 West One Hundred and Forty-first Street, accompanied by R. J. Kupper, No. 100 West One Hundred and Forty-second Street, both in great agitation, entered the West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth Street Police Station, Miss Gelb saying:

"I think this is a bomb! It was left at my home. I don't know who did it."

Before he knew it the neatly bound package was placed on the desk in front of Lieut. Gehan, and Miss Gelb and Kupper made a swift exit and waited in the street to see what would happen. Gehan rang for the door-man and made him put the package in a pail of water. Then Gehan unwrapped the package. Within was a mass of chocolates and a dripping card that read:

"Kindest regards from Morris."

Miss Gelb was called back. She wouldn't discuss "Morris."
